Municipal Advertisements.—Parties interested in Chicago as a city, and residents of every ward, should read the advertisements of the Board of Police and Health Commissioners, on the first page of this issue, of the Board of Public Works, and of the Board of Water Commissioners.

Progress of a Funeral.—The funeral of the late D. W. McCready will take place on Sunday afternoon, from the residence of Mr. Peter Cooney, No. 1 Fourth avenue, at 2 o'clock. The friends of the deceased are invited to attend.

Base Ball.—A match will be played this afternoon between the second nines of the Excelsior and Atlantic Clubs, on the grounds of the former, on Michigan avenue and Twenty-second street. Play to commence at 2½ o'clock. Admission, 25 cents; ladies free. A large turnout is expected.

Accused Robbery.—A German named Bernard Lutz, proprietor of a lager beer saloon opposite the Tremont House, on Randolph street, was arrested in the Police Court, yesterday afternoon, of robbing his wife's mother, Mrs. Catharine Schmidt, of a watch. The case, in the absence of Mrs. Schmidt, was continued over, until to-day, the complainant being under the influence of liquor.

Fire Tugs.—Previous to 4 o'clock this afternoon a trotting race will occur at the Driving Park Course between the Phœnix Engine Company No. 1's fast sailing steamer, Phœnix, and Hook's elegant model, Hook's Lightning, over the following course: Start from the foot of Rush street, run three times around the tug Wisconsin, and return to the starting point.

Stabbing Affray.—Yesterday forenoon an Irishman named Dennis Sullivan, residing on Canal street, in the Seventh ward, was arrested by officer Hall, charged with cutting with a pocket knife one Patrick Cunningham, residing on Canal street, in the same ward. It appears that Sullivan and Cunningham had been drinking together, and that Sullivan, in a fit of drunken anger, struck Cunningham with the knife, inflicting a wound in the left side, from which the latter bled profusely. Sullivan was committed to the County Jail in default of $1,000 bail.

Steps of a Conflagration.—Yesterday forenoon at 10 minutes past 11 o'clock, the alarm of fire was rung in from box 24, corner of Lake and Jefferson streets, caused by the burning of a frame building, owned by Mr. Hall, and occupied by Mr. Hall as a dwelling, and by Mr. Hall and Mr. Hoffman as a grocery. The building was damaged to the extent of $100. Insured for $500 in the Home Insurance Company.
